Discover a new public health elective with Peer Health Education and Leadership. This course offers an introduction to wellness topics, explores leadership styles and development, and qualifies as training to become an IUPUI Health and Wellness Peer Educator. You will also become eligible to complete the National Certified Peer Educator Exam at the end of this course.